The Reverend G. Stanley Steele, Senior Pastor

Our Vision:

With God's Love

Inspire...

Serve...

Disciples of Christ

We affirm the love of God in the life, death and resurrection of His Son and our Lord Jesus Christ. The love of Jesus flows to us from the Holy Spirit and empowers us to be messengers of the good news of this love to all people.

So we seek to Inspire and be Inspired in our worship and study and fellowship as a community of believers who find God's inspiration in the Scriptures, in our relationship with each other and God's relationship with us.

We Serve by supporting each other and our neighbors in the journey of faith and life we all are undertaking. We offer our prayers, our hospitality, and our care to each other within a community where you are known and valued.

We Grow by offering opportunities to share in our faith through small groups, Bible studies, children's programs, youth programs, and leadership development. As Disciples of Christ, we share our gifts in the wider community, caring and supporting all of God's people.

St. Mark's is not a destination but a community where we identify God's presence in each other's lives. Together we challenge and strengthen one another in creating a celebration of God - active in the world.

The piece above is what is stated on our new website under "What We Believe". I wanted to share it here so everyone can see it, and comment if you like. The website and new brochure are very close to being finalized and I believe they will be strong tools for our outreach to the community as well as for our members. The three words, "...inspire, serve, grow" are strong words that speak to our call to be inspired by God's Word and to in turn inspire each other in our life of faith, to serve God and our neighbor, and to constantly grow in our faith. Let us all commit to come together around these words so St. Mark's continues to be the missional church where we offer a community which strives to be faithful to who God calls us to be as disciples of Jesus.

With the Blessings of Jesus,

Let it snow, let it snow...Just not on Sunday

For three weeks we did not exactly cancelled services but the weather did heavily impact the ability of folks to get to church. And yes we did receive about half of what we would usually receive in offerings. First, I hope everyone is safe and warm and will remain that way, second you were missed and it will be good to see you soon and third would you please try to help St. Mark's by making up your contributions if you were not able to attend services. It is uncomfortable to speak of money yet in this world it is an important factor in our ability as a church to do the ministry God has called us to follow. If you can help thanks and even if not please keep St. Mark's in your prayers and all those during this cold and snowy winter.

Farewell

Dear Christian Friends,

As of January 2015, I will no longer be serving St Mark's Evangelical Lutheran Church as visitation pastor. I thank you for the opportunity I have had to serve Jesus Christ and you for the year and a half I was with you, and I pray God's continued blessings on your ministry going forward.

In Christ, Reverend Stephanie Steele

Does God care if you give up chocolates?

Lent began this month. If you're like me, you're running into the familiar wall of thinking about what Lent means and how to properly approach the season.

Even in some Christian circles, Lent gets a bad rap. It's a time associated with giving up candy or coffee or any number of everyday indulgences, habits, or vices. Nobody likes to give up things they enjoy. We're all creatures of habit, and because Lent is seen as the time to deny ourselves of those habits to focus on God, Lent gets an unfortunate reputation. But is Lent really about not eating candy for a few weeks? Does cutting out coffee help you win at Lent? Is that what God is calling us to do?

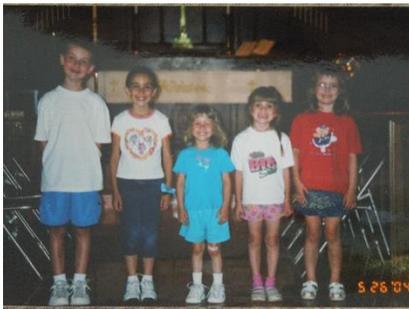

Maybe. A big problem with Lent is that people get hung up on the symbol of the religious action instead of connecting more with the season itself. Giving up something isn't all about the thing itself. If you give up chocolate for Lent and then you have a piece of chocolate, you don't "lose the game." Instead, you should look at the "why". Why do you desire certain things, why do you find it difficult to refrain from those things and how do you live your life in light of that information?

The gesture of self-denial is a spiritual practice. We give something up in order to see something else more clearly. Think of it like cleaning out your garage: only when you clear it out can you see the space for what it is. We're emptying ourselves before God to be more than we could be with all the clutter.

The ironic truth is, Lent can provide a remarkable sense of wholeness in the emptying out. The Lenten season offers us an opportunity to focus more on God than ourselves. It's not about giving up something you like; it's about seeing that God is more important than those things in the first place.

So does God care if you give up chocolate for Lent? Only if it helps you remember that the chocolate never mattered to begin with.

Remember When.....

I started here as organist / choir director in January of 2003. It hardly seems possible; but that was 12 (!) years ago. In the fall of that year we started a Cherub Choir. That's them in this photo taken at the end of their first season (May 2004). Aren't they cute - and so tiny Not only are these cute, tiny children in high school now ; but the two on the left already have their driver's license, and the other three recently got (or are about to get) their learner's permits!! Oh my, how time does fly! In the last couple newsletters

I've been talking about hymns. There are a few that actually tell complete stories - in sort of a "Reader's Digest condensed version" style. ELW # 322 ("Oh Love, How Deep") is basically the story of Jesus' life. In 7 stanzas we sing of His birth, baptism, ministry, betrayal, death, and resurrection. Hymns #340 ("A Lamb Goes Uncomplaining Forth") and #343 ("My Song Is Love Unknown") both tell the Passion story. Then, going on to Easter; ELW #386 ("O, Sons and Daughters...") is essentially the entire 20th chapter of John's gospel. It tells the story of the women going to the tomb on that first Easter morning, Christ appearing to the disciples that evening, and Thomas' doubt of the disciples' story. Hymn #387 is a shorter, somewhat altered version of that same hymn, where the story focuses specifically on Mary and her encounter with Jesus in the garden after His result.

Lenten Services

Lenten mid-week services continue on Wednesdays during March with dinner at 6 pm followed by a presentation beginning around 6:45 pm and concluding with a brief worship at 7:30 pm in the Parish Hall. We will be doing something different this year with invited presenters talking to us about various life stage changes that necessitate changes for us or our loved ones. We are inviting Hospice of Washington County who will discuss retirement planning and estate planning, Doug Fiery to discuss end of life pre-arrangements, and Fred Barrett who is a professional in the Nursing Home industry will discuss choosing a place for a loved one or yourself and how to ensure you are receiving the care you expect and deserve, and Reverend Jason Chestnut. We will conclude with a discussion of spiritual needs of care givers and of those being cared for along with accepting the changes that occur with changes in life stages. Please join us for what we may all wish to dismiss but that which is a part of all of our lives.

Maundy Thursday Table Communion

Maundy Thursday commemorates the Last Supper when Jesus shared the Passover meal with his disciples on the night before he was crucified. In contrast to joyful Easter celebrations when we worship our resurrected Savior, Maundy Thursday is a more solemn occasion, marked by the shadow of Jesus' betrayal. Derived from the Latin word mandatum, meaning "commandment," Maundy refers to the commands

Jesus gave his disciples at the Last Supper: to love with humility by serving one another and to remember his sacrifice. We will once again serve table communion during the Maundy Thursday service on April 2, 2015. Please watch upcoming bulletins for more details and reservation forms.
